VOLUME 2. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1911. NO. 1.

WONSUNDAY'SGAME

THE COMETS AGAIN DEFEATED SHENANDOAH BY 3 TO 2.

ARE IN FOURTH PLACE

The Team Has Won Five Straight Games—The New Manager Took Charge Yesterday.

The Comets reached the half-way place yesterday, winning their fourth consecutive game from Shenandoah, 3 to 2, it being the fifth consecutive victory for the local team. The victory was uncertain at all times, and especially in the ninth, when Shenandoah filled the bases before any outs had been made. A large crowd witnessed the game, many of them with the hope of seeing Johnson pitch. They were disappointed, the battery for Shenandoah being Duran and Castle; for Maryville, Wise, Oswalt and Dietz.

Johnny started in to eat things up and allowed only three hits up to the ninth, when he was removed. It looked like a shame to take him out, but an unlucky pitch hit Simmons. Hagerty was passed and Wells singled to left, filling the bases. A single would have tied the score. Johnny couldn't help feeling a little nervous, and had already pitched hard enough to tire anyone on such a hot day, so Oswalt went to the mound. Castle singled, scoring Simmons, and Hagerty was forced out on the play from center to third. "Haste makes waste" did not prove true at this point. Bridges had run close in on the play just mentioned and had started back to his position. Oswalt, in a hurry, pitched a ball to Campbell, who hit a fine drive toward right. Bridges turned in time to see and catch it and double to first, ending the game. Had he had time to return to his field position the hit would have been safe, tieing the score.

Shenandoah's first score came in the first. Atkins' foul was caught by Dietz. Simmons fanned, but made first before Dietz could recover the ball and throw to first. Hagerty flied out to center. Wells tripled to center, and Castle was cut off from third to first.

Four more innings went by the zero route. In the last of the sixth the Comets made two scores, gaining a lead of one. Dietz flied out to center, Walsh singled to left, and Wintz tripled to center, scoring Walsh. Wintz was cut off trying to steal home. DeCamp walked and stole second. Black stuck on first on Campbell's error and DeCamp scored.

Black was thrown out from catcher to second. One more score in the eighth made the third, which proved to be enough for the victory. Dietz flied out to left, Walsh went to first on an error, Wintz singled to right, DeCamp to left, scoring Walsh. Black beat out a bunt. McBride was thrown out from right to first and Bridges flied out to left, closing that inning.

Shenandoah's ninth inning has already been told, so if Auburn loses today and Maryville wins we will be all to the good in third place.

Herschel Cast's Wedding.

The Newport, Ark., daily papers contained a detailed account of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Cast, Wednesday evening, May 31. Mr. and Mrs. Cast are at present visiting in Maryville with Mr. Cast's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cast, and his sister, Mrs. Lewis White, southwest of Maryville. The wedding took place in St. Paul's Episcopal church in Newport and was the culmination of a long line of social events in tribute to the popularity of the bride and prominence of her family. The account of the Newport Morning Herald is as follows:

For perfection of order in arrangement and for stateliness of effect, perhaps nothing could excel the wedding of Miss Minnie Ferguson Minor to Mr. Herschel Cast last evening. St. Paul's church, at which the sacred rite was performed, was most picturesque in its lovely decorations of magnolia, box and ivy. The festoonings about the pulpit and the choir rail were particularly lovely in white blossoms with graceful interspersing of green.

Just prior to the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. George A. Hillhouse, in richly beautiful tones, sang "All I Want is Love." Then through the main doorway there entered, to the exquisite strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," perfectly played by Miss Georgia Walker, the ushers, Alcorn Ferguson and Gene Hirsch, Norman Wolff and Warren Dunnaway, Adam Lockard and Earnest Williamson. These were followed by the attendants, Miss Willie Overton Minor with Mr. Paul Rider, Miss Mildred Minor with Mr. Dee Moon. Next came the bride leaning upon the arm of her father; these were followed by Mrs. H. O. Walker, the matron of honor, and Miss Lou Minor, the maid of honor. From the side entrance there appeared the rector, preceded by the crucifer and followed by the groom and the best man, Dr. Robert Acker. These met the bride's party at the choir steps, where the betrothal took place. The entire wedding party then advanced to the altar, where the marriage was solemnized. The regular service of the church was used.

Mrs. E. L. Crowson and daughter, Miss Mary were in Maryville Saturday on business.

Fred Rusk of Hopkins spent Sunday in Maryville with his cousin, Miss Besse Scott.

PARKS AND PEACE

WASHINGTON, "CITY BEAUTIFUL," WELL SUPPLIED WITH PARKS.

TAFT MADE PEACE TALK

But While the President Favors Pact, Roosevelt Urges the Utility of the Big Stick.

By VAN CLEVE.

Washington, D. C., June 2.—Washington is the best illustration in the world of the comfort and enjoyment that can be derived from a liberal extension of the park system. No other city furnishes such a forceful illustration because no other city has so many beautiful parks. Thousands of acres in this city are devoted to parks, both large and small. No part of the city is without a park within the radius of six or eight blocks. They are abundantly supplied with shade trees, flowers, fountains and rustic seats, and every day and every evening thousands of people, men, women and children, forsake the stuffy flats and heated homes for the cool breezes and the fresh, invigorating air of the parks.

Owing to the peculiar system under which this city was laid out with its streets at right angles and its avenues running diagonally across from the four corners of the square, there are numerous intersections where streets and avenues run together, creating a number of sharp points. These points are beautified by the creation of little triangular parks, or a circular way is run around and a statue of some historical character is erected and surrounded with grass and flowers. These intersections, therefore, do not result in ugly three-cornered buildings and ragged spots of waste ground, but are made to add beauty and cheerfulness to the city.

Of course, every city cannot indulge such a lavish system of parks as the capitol city can, but every city can and should in its early days make generous provision for parks and driveways. Instead of having no park, Maryville should have half a dozen where people could go of evenings and Sundays and visit and mingle together and drink in the pure air away from the oppressive heat of the streets and the odors that too often infest them. Only a few of the people can afford the luxury of an auto or a team to get out into the country, but every one can walk to a convenient park and enjoy a pleasant hour. The more of these things a city has the less use there is for the downtown loafing places and the places that breed crime and sorrow.

* * *

For the magnificent plan of this wonderful city the country is indebted chiefly to a Frenchman named Pierre Charles l'Enfant. l'Enfant was a civil engineer of great genius who grew up among artistic surroundings in Paris. He was attracted by the stories he had heard of a people fighting for independence in the new country, and said: "When I heard of American independence my heart enlisted." He resolved at once that his sword should go with his heart, and he took passage for America. He came over just one month in advance of the immortal Lafayette. He entered the engineer corps of the United States army and became one of the bravest and most valiant defenders of the revolution.

His engineering skill and artistic talents having been observed by General Washington, l'Enfant was selected to design a plan for the capitol of the new country which Washington hoped would some day become a great country. General Washington was himself a surveyor; Thomas Jefferson, his secretary of state, was an architect of great skill, and together the three men worked to design a city that should be a credit to the new government and a monument to their own wisdom and far sightedness.

Upon l'Engant's tomb is engraved the first map that he drew of the proposed city, and the original is preserved in the library of congress, and to this day there has been scarcely a deviation from the original plan. The rapid growth of the city in recent years has necessitated the laying out of some suburban additions, but aside from these the streets of Washington are the same today as designed and named in that remarkable instrument. For many years much sport was made of the plan, and a writer during the early fifties remarked that l'Enfant and General Washington seemed to have dreamed of a city of some 200,000 inhabitants, which even then was looked upon as a wildly absurd idea.

But those pioneers were wiser than the critics that came after them. Sitting in the shades of the native woodlands along the Potomac, with a vast undeveloped territory stretched out before them, with a poor and foot sore people trying to bring order from chaos and to organize distinct and definite states from the early colonies, without so much as the whistle of a locomotive or the singing of a telegraph wire to give them inspiration, these men looked into space, saw a marvelous country of a hundred million souls, rich, progressive and powerful, and designed a city that is at once the pride and the glory of that very country, then a dream, but now a fact.

Years afterward l'Enfant, bent with years and burdened with adversity, was compelled to seek an asylum in the home of a Maryland farmer, and it was there that he died, June 14, 1825, in poverty and upon the charity of his friend at the age of 71. His death came upon the anniversary of the day the flag for which he had fought and which he had honored was first flung to the breeze.

Two years ago congress appropriated $1,000 and the citizens of Washington lifted his body from the Maryland hillside and laid it in beautiful Arlington cemetery. And here, a few days ago the representatives of a tardy but perhaps not an ungrateful nation gathered to do honor to his memory. Few men can afford to wait a hundred years for a public acknowledgement of their great works, but while l'Enfant's grave was unmarked and his name was unsung, he had designed for himself a monument that has continued to grow in grandeur and beauty until today it stands the most splendid among nations.

* * *

Decoration day was observed here with imposing ceremonies. Thousands gathered at Arlington to hear the address by the president and Senator Curtis of Kansas. Mr. Taft made a plea for universal peace, which is a most commendable desire, but there is no universal peace and good will, the belligerent gentleman from Oyster Bay was in New York waving his arms and thirsting for gore. The country was advised to beware of false prophets of peace and reminded that "unrighteous peace is a greater evil than war."

Theodore is alarmed lest this country get tied up in a peace pact so that it can't fight when it wants to. He yearns for another San Juan Hill, and the dreary languor of peace is altogether too tame. Colonel Roosevelt made several striking statements during the course of his New York speech, and one of them was: "I don't believe in lying, whether it be national or international." This is indeed a wholesome doctrine and, if he will permit the suggestion, one that might well be extended to individual as well as the national life.

The present program involves the building of two first class battle ships per year and several smaller ones. These large ones cost an average of about ten million dollars each and the expense of keeping them afloat is about one million per year. Notwithstanding this tremendous cost, the life of a battle ship is only about ten years. So the expense of keeping up war preparations when no war is in prospect is easily apparent. A peace agreement by which the principal nations of the earth might submit their troubles to arbitration, would not only save untold misery and suffering to the public, but countless millions as well. The people of every country are burdened with war taxes in times of peace.

In this country there is not only the navy with all its tremendous expense, but there is the army, insignificant as it may be. Then there is the war department with its seven thousand employes in one building, the pension department with its thousands of employes and its pension demands of one hundred and sixty millions per year. All this is directly chargeable to war, realized or in contemplation. Seventy per cent of the entire appropriations of the last congress were on account of war expenses. More than double all other government expenses. What would it cost if this were a nation of Roosevelts?

TO BE HELD TUESDAY

SPECIAL ELECTION WILL TAKE PLACE AT THAT TIME.

LITTLE INTEREST TAKEN

Two Candidates for Police Judge—City Hall Issue Should Carry.

The special election to vote on the bond issue of $15,000 for a new city hall and to elect a police judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Judge S. B. Arnold will be held tomorrow. Not much interest is being taken in the election.

A number of workers will be at the polls in the interest of the city hall bond issue. Maryville should have a new city hall, one that is in keeping with the other public buildings of the city, since the old one has been declared unsafe.

For police judge there will be two candidates. 'Squire W. L. Johnson will run as an independent candidate, and 'Squire J. W. Morris will be on the non-partisan ticket, having been selected Saturday night as the choice of the citizens' meeting held in the court house.

At the meeting 'Squire Morris was nominated by acclamation for the office of police judge. No other name was presented to the meeting, E. H. Bainum declining to become a candidate and 'Squire W. L. Johnson desiring to run as an independent candidate.

'Squire Johnson, in talking to a representative of this paper Monday, said:

"Yes, I am a candidate for police judge and will run on an independent ticket."

Guessing at Glasses

Is more dangerous than guessing at most anything else in the world. If relief from the errors of vision is to come through the wearing of glasses, it is all important that those glasses shall be adjusted according to the measurements of the most modern appliances. Choosing glasses by simply trying them on cannot be too strongly condemned. Absolute accuracy is essential, and absolute accuracy is what we offer you. Call any day you can, and we will give you our immediate and undivided attention.

Communications

To the Citizens of Maryville: At a mass meeting of the citizens held at the court house last Saturday night I was nominated by acclamation for police judge of the city of Maryville.

The meeting was called by Mr. Curfman, president of the Citizens' League, and without any solicitation on my part, for I was not even consulted about the matter, but went into the convention with the expectation of having opposition and abiding by the action of the convention. It so happened that I was the choice of the good people present at this mass meeting, for which I am truly thankful, and if I am successful at the polls tomorrow I shall make a desperate effort to discharge the duties of the office in such a manner that will make the people of Maryville proud that they cast their votes for me.

Thanking my friends one and all for their hearty support in the past and hoping that all good citizens will go to the polls tomorrow and cast their votes for me, the regular nominee of the citizens' mass meeting, I am, Yours respectfully,

J. W. MORRIS.

SUMMER SONG.

The sun takes no pleasure in shining,
The night hath no joy of her dew,
The summer is drooping and pining,
The ringdove is mourning for you—
Only you!
The rose leaves are falling, are falling,
The stars glimmer few;
And my heart in the shadow is calling
To you—only you—only you!

Come back to the summer time, bringing
The joy of the day and the dew,
To the forest her green and her singing
To my heart, in her loneliness, you—
Only you!
For the rose leaves are falling, are falling,
And nothing stands true
Save my heart in the twilight still calling
To you—only you—only you!
—Ellen Harbour Glines in Munsey's Magazine.

The Girl's Handicap.

In her pretty new frock sister Mabel felt quite proud as she sat on the front step and watched some boys playing on the sidewalk.

After a time one little boys came up to talk to her and to admire, in his rough little way, her bright shiny shoes and pink sash.

"See my nice square-cut waist," exclaimed the girlie, "and my nice coral beads! Don't you wish you wuz a girl?"

"No sire-ee," replied the boy, "I wouldn't want to be any girl at all, because lookie how much more neck you haf to wash."—Youngston, Ohio Telegram.

SAGE AND SULPHUR CURES DANDRUFF

Restores Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Itching Scalp Quickly Stopped.

This applies to Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, for if it does not do exactly what is claimed for it, the sales would naturally drop off. However, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy does "make good," as evidenced by its daily increasing sales. Druggists say that this preparation gives the best satisfaction of any hair remedy ever sold. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It removes dandruff, strengthens the hair, gives new life to dull or parched hair and gradually restores gray hair to natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.

Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Can Maryville readers demand further proof than the following statement:

Mrs. W. M. Newman, Chestnut street, Savannah, Mo., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of more benefit to me than any other kidney remedy I have ever used, and in view of this fact, I willingly recommend them. I was caused much suffering by pains in my shoulders, and mornings on arising I felt tired and languid. I was also bothered by the kidney secretions. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I procured a box, and soon after beginning their use I was relieved. Another member of my family has also taken this remedy with satisfactory results."

SENATORS MUST GO ON RECORD

Must Stand and Be Counted on Every Phase of Tariff.

LENGTHY DEBATE ANTICIPATED

Senator Stone to Lead Fight to Force Through Schedules—House Likely to Pass Bill Reducing Woolen Duties—Slated for the Pigeonhole.

Washington, June 5.—Senate Republicans are to be compelled to go on record on every phase of the tariff that is acted upon by the house, if Democrats are able to bring this about. It is not likely they will be compelled to vote on other schedules than those which the house revises, but it is certain at least they can not evade record votes on the schedules the house passes on and sends up.

Senate insurgents fought hard for the lowering of duties two years ago, and some of the Democratic senators intend to see now whether they will adhere to the same views.

Senator Stone (Mo.) will lead in the fight to put through the upper house the tariff schedules that are revised in the house. He will not, without a contest, permit the finance committee to bottle up these measures. He will move to discharge the finance committee from consideration of each one of the bills that it tries to bottle up. This will precipitate a long debate on each.

The house has passed the reciprocity measure and the free list bill. It will pass a bill to reduce woolen duties. It is not likely to do more than this, though there has been some talk of cotton being taken up.

Wool Bill in Pigeon Hole.

The free list bill is now in the finance committee, and that committee purposes to keep it there. The wool bill in due time will be sent to the same committee and be pigeonholed.

Senator Stone will move to discharge the committee from consideration of each of these bills. The resulting struggle may prolong the session greatly, it may be into August, or even Septembter.

Stone and other Democrats intend to "put it up to" the insurgents. They purpose to do this especially on the wool schedule. They intend to represent to the country that the Democratic bill for a revision of the wool schedule is substantially what Dolliver and other senate insurgents contended for in 1909 and, if the insurgents refuse to support it, then they will assail the insurgents for inconsistency and cowardize.

It is certain, however, that some of the insurgents, both in the house and senate are going to support the Democratic bill revising the wool and woolen duties. Just how many will do so is unsettled.

It is believed now that the president will succeed in killing off the amendments to the Canadian treaty, and that when it comes to a vote in the senate it will pass as it came from the house. If the senate should amend, the president is said to have received assurances that the house will stand firm in conference against any change in the measure.

STATUE COST $20,000,000

Million Persons Witness Dedication of Monument to Victor Emmanuel II.

Rome, June 5.—Nearly 1,000,000 persons witnessed the inauguration of a magnificent monument to King Victor Emmanuel II. Interest was added to the occasion by reason of the celebration of the granting of the constitution by King Charles Albert in 1848, the same constitution which still rules united Italy.

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena, the queen mother, Margherita, and other members of the royal house were present. Not only the people of Rome, but thousands from the provinces joined in making the event of national importance.

The monument is the most colossal structure of the kind in the world. It occupies the left section of the Capitoline hill and opens into the very heart of Rome. The statue is forty feet high and weighs fifty tons. Notwithstanding the relative cheapness of marble and labor in Italy, the monument will cost when completed about $20,000,000 and will have represented thirty years' work.

PARDON FOR CHRISTIANSON

South Dakota Man Sent Up for Killing Wife Is Released.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 5.—In accordance with the recent action of the state board of pardons, Christ Christianson, after serving in the Sioux Falls penitentiary for nearly fifteen years for murder, has been released and returned to the home of his brother in Clark county. It is generally believed by those who have investigated his case that he was an innocent man, notwithstanding the fact that he was convicted of the crime of having murdered his wife at their home in Clark county. He was lodged in the penitentiary on Dec. 31, 1896. His wife's body was found hanging in a grove near the family home. It now is believed that she committed suicide and that Christianson has all these long years been unjustly deprived of his liberty. The evidence presented against him was purely circumstantial.

HARD LINES FOR SWINDLERS.

Making a Fortune by Means of Postage and Glowing Letters Not So Easy Now—Suits Brought Against New York Swindlers to Be Pressed.

New York, June 5.—Making a fortune in New York by means of some postage stamps and fluent use of the English language is not going to be so easy in the future as it has been in the past, according to United States District Attorney Henry A. Wise, as he talked regarding the success of the government in its first two big cases against fake stock selling concerns.

By the recent conviction of George H. Munroe and six of the officers of the United Wireless Telegraph company the government has put a damper upon the game of relieving men and women throughout the country of their money in return for well written letters and rainbow promises.

Four Cases Pending.

Revelations following the two prosecutions thus far conducted by the government officials here show that within three years men and women in various parts of the United States sent checks and postoffice orders and cash to the amount of $6,000,000 to swindlers in this city. The government has now four cases pending, in which it will show that the amount sent here in response to "come-on letters" was equally great.

This brings the total to $4,000,000 yearly sent by confiding investors in the different states to this city, for which the government claims nothing was given in return. Several other cases of a similar nature are now pending, with arrests likely any day. When these cases are considered, together with the bucketshop industry, poolrooms and other get-rich-quick schemes, it appears that the kind hearted citizens of the country are contributing from $8,000,000 to $12,000,000 yearly for the support of men in this city who have been educated to believe there is no work like working the people. This would be a little less than $35,000 a day, and how far below the truth this may be is indicated that at the time of the raid upon the Burr brothers, whose case is now awaiting trial, $25,000 was found in the morning's mail of the firm.

Amazing Stories Told.

The stories told the prosecuting officers and on the witness stand by the witnesses brought from all parts of the country so as to impress the jurors with an idea of the widespread nature of some of the swindles are so amazing as to be almost beyond belief. It appears to matter little what is held out in the way of bait. In some cases money is sent for shares in mines that do not exist, some times for real estate that the letter writers do not own, some times for plantations that are under water and some times for wonderful machines that have never been invented except upon paper.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVER

Kansas City Traction Company Unable to Pay Interest on Debts.

Kansas City, June 5.—Upon the bill of the Kansas City Railway and Light company, signed by John M. Egan president, the Metropolitan Street Central Electric, and Kansas City Elevated Railway companies were placed in the hands of receivers here.

The receivers are R. J. Dunham of Chicago, chairman of the board of directors of the railway and light company, and Ford F. Harvey of Kansas City.

The receivership is not due to the failure of the street car company to make money at the present time. Last year the net profit amounted to more than $1,000,000. This amount was not enough, however, to pay the interest on outstanding indebtedness of the company, and make the extensions required by the city franchise.

Mayor Brown said that the city government will ask to be made a party to the litigation by filing an intervening petition to protect all the city's rights in the premises.

Arrested for Carrying Off Sister.

Lexington, Neb., June 5.—Frank Bellamy attempted to remove his eleven-year-old sister from the home of John Corkin. He started from town with her in his buggy when the screams of the girl attracted attention. Chief of Police Malcom, in an automobile, overtook them about a mile away. Bellamy was placed in jail. He will have a hearing today. The girl returned to the Corkin home.

Wealthy Farmer Dead.

Reinbeck, Ia., June 5.—Fritz Strohbehn, the wealthiest man of Grundy county, died at a Yankton (S. D.) hospital. His death was due to mental disorders. His wealth is estimated at $500,000, consisting principally of 2,330 acres of farm land in this county and 1,400 acres in South Dakota.

Mystery Envelops Shooting.

Coatesville, Pa., June 5.—Mystery surrounds the death of Mrs. Maud Atlee and the probable fatal wounding of her husband, Edward Atlee, in their home here.

A GREAT PHYSICIAN.

What He Said of Germs That Cause Disease.

M. Pasteur, sometimes called the greatest physician, often said: "I believe that we shall one day rid the world of all diseases that are caused by germs."

Of all the diseases caused by germs, catarrh is one of the most persistent and loathsome. Catarrh can be cured, but only by destroying the germs.

Breathe Hyomei (pronounce it Hi-o-me) and cure catarrh by killing the germs. The Hyomei method is the only sensible method, because you breathe the highly antiseptic and germ killing air directly over the entire membrane infested with catarrh germs.

Hyomei will cure catarrh. There may be some complicated cases where it will fail, but the chances are ten to one in its favor, and the sufferer from catarrh takes no risk, because Hyomei is a guaranteed remedy, and if it doesn't cure, the Orear-Henry Drug Co. will refund the purchase price.

Hyomei will also give instant relief and cure in bronchitis, coughs, colds and croup. A complete outfit, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. If you now own a Hyomei inhaler you can get a bottle of Hyomei for 50 cents at druggists everywhere or at the Orear-Henry Drug Co.

The performances given by this company were meritorious in every sense and the attendance increased nightly, Saturday night's audience numbering nearly a thousand persons, who more than ever enjoyed the production of "Cousin Bess" and the new tricks by Mock Sad Alli and specialties by Dick Disney. Tonight's bill will be "The Coward," a three-act military comedy drama, cast to the strength of the company. New magic by Mock Sad Alli will be quite a feature. Managers Moses and Cook will have as their guests tonight the Shenandoah and Maryville base ball clubs, who will attend in a body. A fine line of plays will be given during the week, and Mock Sad Alli will give an expose on spiritualism Tuesday night. With good weather there is no reason why the stock company should not do a big business, as it is deserving of excellent patronage.

Beware of the Grouch.

The man who goes through the world with a grouch, who is always watching for an opportunity to "get square" with somebody whom he thinks has done him an injury, is at a great disadvantage, says Orion Swett Marden in Success Magazine. The desire for revenge acts in the system like a leaven of poison, crippling the brain power and inducing unhappiness. No one can do his best when he has an unkind feeling or resentment in his heart toward his fellow men.

We are always prejudiced against those who have the reputation of being grouchy, or who are of a suspicious disposition. These people make very few friends and are not good "mixers." They often live lonely lives—especially as they advance in years.

No employer wants such people around him. He knows they are not business-getters or friend-makers; on the contrary, they frequently drive away customers and make trouble among the other employes. In business, if people are not treated civilly they do not take into consideration that the clerks and those who wait upon them may be ill or tired. They expect courtesy and obliging, kindly treatment.

Everybody wants to get away from the cranky, fault-finding, over-critical person. We do not like people who are out of tune with the world they have lived in.

Have Adopted Little Girl.

Madison D. Young of St. Joseph was in Maryville Saturday, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Amanda Young, of East First street. He was accompanied by his little adopted daughter, Alma Murray, who is the daughter of his cousin, Bessie Douglas Murray, who died early in the spring. Mrs. Murray and the late Fred E. Douglas, who died in Kansas City, were brother and sister.

Miss Grace Boeppler, who has been making her home with her uncle George Pennington, and family, who live six miles north of Maryville, left Saturday evening for St. Joseph to make her home.

Russian Army Aviator Turns His Machine Over at 2,000 Feet.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—To escape a sentence of death passed upon him by the Terrorists, of whom he was one, because he deemed his honor paramount, Captain Mazenewith, the army aviator, committed suicide by turning his biplane over at a height of 2,000 feet and was crushed to death in the fall of his machine.

It was at first thought that Mazenewitch's death was due to an accident, but a letter that he wrote to a friend on the eve of his fatal flight showed he planned to die in that manner and carried out the plan.

TAFT HITS FOES OF RECIPROCITY

Interests at Work to Beat Agreement, President Declares.

SAYS THE PEOPLE APPROVE IT

Asserts All Objections Will Disappear After Enactment of Law and That it Will Be a Benefit to American Farmer—Scores Opponents' Methods.

Chicago, June 5.—Expressing his belief that the senate would have an opportunity to act on the Canadian reciprocity agreement during the coming week, President Taft made his public appeal for the ratification, declaring that the lumber and print paper trusts are foremost in opposition.

Before a great crowd in Orchestra hall, President Taft, as the guest of the Western Economic society, declared the bill, if passed at all, would pass because of the weight of public sentiment in its favor and not because of the desire of the senate to ratify it.

The president's attack on the lumber and print paper trusts for their opposition to the ratification of the treaty was scathing.

Salient Points of Speech.

The following were among the telling points in his address:

"The interests are trying to block the reciprocity agreement with Canada with hostile amendments. The people approve the agreement.

"The American farmer will suffer no injury whatever. On the contrary, he will be benefited by it.

"Canada will have 30,000,000 people some day, and it would be a short-sighted policy that would fail to provide means to capture this trade.

"Six months from the time the agreement is ratified there will be no opposition whatever from any quarter, for the agreement will prove its own worth.

"Canada cannot and does not raise more than one-sixth of 1 per cent of the crop of the United States. The United States exports into Canada fifteen times as much meat and dairy products as Canada imports into the United States.

"The world price of wheat, barley, rice and oats is fixed abroad, where the surplus of the producing countries is disposed of, and is little affected by the place from which the supply is derived.

"The reciprocity agreement should pass the senate, and I believe it will pass."

GEORGE TO OUT DO EDWARD

Parliament Alone Appropriates $925,000 for the Coronation.

London, June 5.—The cost of the coronation of King George, June 22, is going to be so great that there is really no way of arriving at an accurate estimate. A sample of the profligacy the people are showing is seen in the appropriation of $925,000 made by parliament to defray the government's expenses. This is $301,000 more than was spent at King Edward's coronation.

It is comparatively easy to figure out what the active participants in the coronation will spend, but absolutely impossible more than to guess at the number of millions that will be spent by Englishmen at large and by the hundreds of thousands of visitors in London during the week of the coronation.

Every civilized nation will be represented at the coronation. Isolated cases give an idea of the cost. The Earl of Crew, secretary for India, recently lost his family coach in a fire. He has just had a new one built for the coronation and for his harness alone he paid $2,500.

MUST CHECK THEIR GUNS

Muskogee Authorities Fear Porum Feud Witnesses May Fight.

Muskogee, Okla., June 5.—Every man who enters the Muskogee county court house today during the investigation of the grand jury into the Porum feud situation will be searched for weapons. This order was issued by W. E. Disney, county attorney, and is to prevent any shooting when the men of the two feud factions are brought face to face.

More than forty persons who are supposed to know about the shooting resulting in the death of four men have been subpoenaed by the grand jury and others will be brought in. They are to appear today.

E. A. Maxwell, the third victim of the fight at Porum, died in a hospital here.

Beatrice Fights Light Charges.

Beatrice, Neb., June 5.—Manager Capps of the Beatrice Electric company was arrested on a complaint sworn out by M. F. Wolfe, charging him with violating the city ordinance relative to charging more than 12 cents for electric current. Capps gave bonds for his appearance in court next Thursday. This is the beginning of a long fight between the city and the electric company.

Hurt in Auto Accident.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 5.—Frank Rost, a merchant, is not expected to live as the result of a thirty-foot plunge of an automobile, in which he was riding, into a creek. His skull was fractured.
